

Site	Context	Spot/CCDate	Fabric	Common name	E Date	L Date	Period	Resid	Form	Dec	Sherds	Weight	ENV	Comments
WOK17	3	c1580-1650	PMR	London area post-medieval redware	1580	1900	PM		BOWL		1	42	1	Wide bowl rim. Diam c400mm. Steeply flaring wall with a thick round-topped collared rim. Dark brown glaze all over int & splashes ext. Sandy grey material adhering to int surface - but not bonded to it. Possibly burnt/ashy? Probably 17C
WOK17	3	c1580-1650	PMR	London area post-medieval redware	1580	1900	PM				1	15	1	Body sherd from large open vess. Possibly bowl? Clear brown glaze all over int. Reduced ext. Some grey sandy grimey material on the breaks. 1 Large sherd and joining chip (counted as one)
WOK17	3	c1580-1650	PMR	London area post-medieval redware	1580	1900	PM		JAR		1	23	1	Flanged everted storage jar rim with flat top. Diam c 300mm. Oxid with clear orange glaze all over ext and lower down int. fairly worn. Prob 17C, poss second half 17C?
WOK17	3	c1580-1650	PMR	London area post-medieval redware	1580	1900	PM		JUG		1	50	1	Fresh jug handle. Oval section. Oxid core with reduced ext surface. Covered with fresh glossy reduced greenish-brown glaze. Possibly a waster?? 17C?
WOK17	3	c1580-1650	PMR	London area post-medieval redware	1580	1900	PM		BOWL		1	17	1	Burnt body sherd from wide dish/bowl. Grey reduced. Unglazed and smoothed ext. int surface covered with brown-black bubbly fritty burnt glaze. Edges dirty/sandy
WOK17	3	c1580-1650	ROMAN	Roman pottery	1AD	410AD	ROM				1	4	1	Very worn body sherd Roman colour coated ware. Possibly New Forest ware? Fine white fabric with dark grey-black slip all over int & ext but mostly worn off from ext surface. Groove ext. Possibly a beaker?
WOK17	4	c1650-1700?	WOOLGS	Woolwich grey stoneware	1650	1700	PM		JUG DJ	STAM P	5	157	1	WASTER. Joining rim sherds (4) and handle (fresh breaks) from globe and cylinder-shaped drinking jug embedded in kiln dross and glassy/cindery slag. The rim has a big lump of grey clay dross attached which contains the concave impression of a cylindrical vessel (Bellarmine neck?) once attached. rim diam c70mm. Approx 80% rim survival. Groove under rim ext, and neck cordon. Neck 40mm tall. 3 surviving ring-shaped stamps spaced evenly around the neck, each 14mm diam. Vertical loop handle attached mid neck (now detached). Light grey stoneware with ext dark brown iron wash. Vess possibly was stuck upside-down into kiln-furniture layer on the pedestals. Broken during excavation/removal. Form and dec as P&B78, fig.11.40
WOK17	4	c1650-1700?	WOOLGS	Woolwich grey stoneware	1650	1700	PM		JUG DJ	STAM P	4	69	1	WASTER. Joining rim sherds (3) (fresh breaks) from globe and cylinder-shaped jug (as above) originally embedded in kiln dross - traces attached. Rim diam c70mm. Approx 60% rim survival. Groove under rim ext, and neck cordon. Neck 40mm tall. 2 surviving ring-shaped stamps each 14mm diam. Light grey stoneware with ext dark brown iron wash. Fritty/rough ext surface - black in places. Probably from pedestal kiln-furniture layer Broken during excavation/removal.

Site	Context	Spot/CCDate	Fabric	Common name	E Date	L Date	Period	Resid	Form	Dec	Sherds	Weight	ENV	Comments
WOK17		4 c1650-1700?	WOOLGS	Woolwich grey stoneware	1650	1700	PM		BOT BAL		11	355	7	WASTERS. Parts of 7 separate Bellarmine (7 rims) including fresh joining sherds (fresh breaks). Most rims embedded in kiln dross - some with thick lumps attached. Only 1 rim is 100% complete = 39mm diam at the top & 43mm diam on the lower cordon of the collared rim. Collared rims all v similar but not all identical (2x 22mm deep, 1x 19mm deep, 1x 14mm deep). Poss trace of a Bellarmine mask on 1 vess. Includes 3 joining sherds (rim missing(from shoulder of vess embedded in a thick lump of glassy kiln dross. 2 rims have handles attached. Vess form as P&B1978 fig. 10.32-34. On some eggs the fabric colour has been zoned by firing conditions - pale grey int surface/margins, broad pale cream ext margins beneath brown salt glaze.
WOK17		4 c1650-1700?	WOOLGS	Woolwich grey stoneware	1650	1700	PM		MUG		1	55	1	WASTER. Ovoid mug with inward-leaning rim. Upper half of vess surviving with stemp of ova/rodl section handle. Groove under rim ext. Rim diam 80mm (38%). Rough brown salt glaze ext only. Fine pale grey stoneware. Form as P&B78, fig. 11.38
WOK17		4 c1650-1700?	WOOLGS	Woolwich grey stoneware	1650	1700	PM		MUG		1	55	1	WASTER. Rim from ovoid mug as above. Rough brown salt glaze ext only. Rim diam c120mm but probably squashed in kiln? Fine pale grey stoneware. Form as P&B78, fig. 11.38
WOK17		4 c1650-1700?	WOOLGS	Woolwich grey stoneware	1650	1700	PM				13	131	6	WASTERS. Misc jug/mug body sherds and 2 handles. Some embedded in kiln dross. Various vessels. all brown salt-glazed ext. Some joining. A few only 3mm thick. Might include bodysherds from kiln props?
WOK17		4 c1650-1700?	WOOLGS	Woolwich grey stoneware	1650	1700	PM		KILNF		4	71	1	KILN FURNITURE. Profile Type 5 conical kiln prop as P&B78, fig. 11.46. Plain slightly thickened rim. Height 90mm. Base diam c60mm, poss slightly warped? and rim (only tiny bit survives) is less. The base is roughened underside and poss sanded. Only the area below the wall survives - not much of the flat floor - probably detached but glazed over in kiln so look like a rim now (c66%). Coarser light grey stoneware but no flint noted in fabric. Rough salt glaze allover ext only
WOK17		4 c1650-1700?	WOOLGS	Woolwich grey stoneware	1650	1700	PM		KILNF		2	147	1	KILN FURNITURE. Lower half-profile Type 5 conical kiln prop as P&B78, fig. 11.46. Rim missing. Base diam c60mm. The base sits on a 'plug' of kiln dross which has exploded, like foam, through the flat base and up into the basal cavity with two redenned pices of the flat base stuck to the top of the dross. The vess was once firmly bonded to the kiln's pedestal floor. Brown salt glaze ext with thinned reddish-brown bloom int. 1 large sherd c67mm high plus 25mm plug of dross below this. 1 small base frag joining. Coarse light grey fabric - but no flint noted

Site	Context	Spot/CCDate	Fabric	Common name	E Date	L Date	Period	Resid	Form	Dec	Sherds	Weight	ENV	Comments
WOK17		4 c1650-1700?	WOOLGS	Woolwich grey stoneware	1650	1700	PM		KILNF		1	16	1	KILN FURNITURE. Flat base from 2 Type 5 kiln prop - conical as above, but both look like a rim with a rough flat top - the thin flat base may have detached - or possibly the were made as hollow cones/tubes? Diam c55mm. rough grey-brown glaze ext. One break has been re-fired brownish.
WOK17		6 IRON AGE	IRON AGE	Iron Age pottery	IA	IA	PREHIST		JAR		1	21	1	Fairly worn body sherd. Iron Age/Early Roman. Fine grey-brown sandy ware with some organic inclusions. Possibly some glauconite sands? Fairly soft. Ext surface with careful vertical burnishing. Int surface with traces of white-ish limescale-like deposit from cooking use (seen by Paul Booth)
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMBL	Post-medieval black-glazed ware	1580	1700	PM		MUG		2	15	1	Probably 1 vess? Rim from smallish barrel-shaped mug with plain vertical rim and two ribs or cordons on the shoulder. Form as Pearce 1992, fig. 35.269. Rim diam 85mm (20%). Smaller body sherd probably from lower wall - also with trace of rib. Reduced black glaze allver with dak greenish hint. Fresh
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMR	London area post-medieval redware	1580	1600	PM		JAR		2	29	1	Thickened everted jar rim (2 joining) diam 150mm. Reduced glossy greenish -brown glaze allver int/ext. Grey in the rim core. Possibly a WASTER?
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMR	London area post-medieval redware	1580	1600	PM		JAR		1	23	1	Body sherds. Glazed int/ext. fresh
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMR	London area post-medieval redware	1580	1600	PM		JAR		1	40	1	WASTER. Rim. Heavy squared storage jar rim on flaring neck. Diam 250mm. Form similar P&B 1974, fig. 19.106-7 but more robust. Clear brown glaze on inside only & top of rim. WASTER - glaze extends over breaks
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMR	London area post-medieval redware	1580	1600	PM		BOWL		1	16	1	WASTER. Bowl or possibly jar rim? Diam c230mm. Flaring neck ending in thick upright collar with rounded apex - similar P&B74 fig. 8.10-13. Greenish glaze int only but extending ovre break.
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMSRY	London area post-medieval slipped redware: yellow glazed	1480	1650	PM		JUG		3	181	1	Fresh joining sherds (2 rims). Typical rounded jug with collared rim and 2 neck cordons. Form as Pryor & Blockley 1978, Fig.20.109-110. Pulled lip. White slip allver ext and part int. A large accidental vertical streak or drip on neck coming from a stacking scar on rim top. Glaze also seeped through a flaw in the neck - possibly a second or WASTER?
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMSRG	London area post-medieval slipped redware: green glazed	1480	1650	PM		JUG		3	51	1	Fresh joining sherds (2 rims). Typical rounded jug with collared rim and trace of 1 neck cordon. Form as Pryor & Blockley 1978, Fig.20.109-110. Pulled lip. White slip allver ext and part int. Mottled green glaze ext. Partially glazed flaw in the neck - possibly a scond or waster?
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMSRG	London area post-medieval slipped redware: green glazed	1480	1650	PM		JUG		2	16	1	Fresh non-joining sherds incl 1 rims & 1 neck bo. Typical rounded jug with collared rim and trace of 1 neck cordon. Form as Pryor & Blockley 1978, Fig.20.109-110. White slip allver ext and part int. Mottled green glaze ext
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMSRG	London area post-medieval slipped redware: green glazed	1480	1650	PM		JUG		1	25	1	Body. Hard with broad grey core. Fresh

Site	Context	Spot/CCDate	Fabric	Common name	E Date	L Date	Period	Resid	Form	Dec	Sherds	Weight	ENV	Comments
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMSRG	London area post-medieval slipped redware: green glazed	1480	1650	PM		BOWL		1	42	1	Bowl with broad flanged rim diam 300mm. The thickened or beaded lip of the rim is bifid (deeply grooved) and has crimped decoration as some Weser ware and Border ware bowls/dished ed Pearce 1992, fig.20.31 and the gently hollowed flange of the rim also has a combed wavy band of decoration & a groove near the outer border before the crimping. White slip all over int under mottled green glaze. Unglazed ext. the lip of the rim is sooted ext from domestic use.
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMSRG	London area post-medieval slipped redware: green glazed	1480	1650	PM		BOWL		1	29	1	Flanged bowl rim with raised upright bead. P&B 1978, fig.8.15. Diam c300mm. Fresh
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMSRG	London area post-medieval slipped redware: green glazed	1480	1650	PM		BOWL		1	4	1	Body. Rough green glaze int
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMSRG	London area post-medieval slipped redware: green glazed	1480	1650	PM		PIP		1	61	1	Fresh. Body sherd with complete short horizontal skillet/pipkin-type handle - slightly S-shaped with flattened end. Probably a smallish pipkin with white slip over internal base/lower walls and speck and specks green glaze on latter
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMRE	London area early post-medieval redware	1480	1600	PM		JAR		1	10	1	Flanged pipkin-style rim as P&B1978, fig.19.107. Diam 110mm. Mottled green glaze over rim and int neck only. Partially glazed over rim break - possibly a waster?
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMRE	London area early post-medieval redware	1480	1600	PM		JAR		2	13	1	Flanged pipkin-style rim as P&B1978, fig.18.13. Diam c180mm. Specks of glaze. Joining sherds. Deep horiz grooves/cordons on neck.
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMRE	London area early post-medieval redware	1480	1600	PM		JUG		1	83	1	WASTER. Lower junction from rod-section jug handle which has detached cleanly from vessel wall. Clearly a WASTER as has splashes of glaze on the smooth facet where it would have attached to jug. Also some glaze dribbles on handle. The broken end of the rod is darker and rougher than surrounding fabric. Mainly dark grey all over with orange-brown patch. Keying thumb impressions at base of handle
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMRE	London area early post-medieval redware	1480	1600	PM		JUG		1	14	1	Probable WASTER. Oxidised throughout. Spalled basal angle probably from jug. Specks of brown glaze ext & some tiny specks on spalled rough int surface. A large angular flint grit probably responsible for the spalling or blow-out
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMRE	London area early post-medieval redware	1480	1600	PM				8	87	6	Body sherd from various glazed jugs/jars. Some joining. Might join others in this context?
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMRE	London area early post-medieval redware	1480	1600	PM				11	100	3	Body sherd from various unglazed jugs/jars. Some joining. Might join other in this context?
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMSRY	London area post-medieval slipped redware: yellow glazed	1480	1650	PM		JUG		4	107	1	Joining sherds. From lower wall of probable jug. Traces white slip ext. undefired
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMSRY	London area post-medieval slipped redware: yellow glazed	1480	1650	PM		JUG		1	37	1	WASTER. Body sherd from girth or shoulder of jug/jar with denatured matt glaze all over ext - partly over white slip which also occurs at the top inside. Glaze extends all over upper break

Site	Context	Spot/CCDate	Fabric	Common name	E Date	L Date	Period	Resid	Form	Dec	Sherds	Weight	ENV	Comments
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMSL	London area post-medieval slip-decorated redware	1480	1600	PM		JUG		1	79	1	WASTER. Sagging base/lower wall sherd from smallish jug with red fabric and reduced ext surface with a single oblique stroke of white slip decoration surviving. The underside is oxidised and shows potter's fingerprints. The basal angle has glaze on it all the way round and kiln debris adhering. The sherd has spalled off from the main vessel and the rough inner surface/break is brightly oxidised & shows some plant/grass inclusions - possibly causing it to spall? The sherd is clearly a WASTER
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMR CALC	London-area post-medieval calcareous redware	1580	1900	PM		CHIMNEY		3	466	1	Unusual fabric and form. Joining sherds from cylindrical WT chimney pot-like form also resembling a drain pipe with carinated shoulder and tall vertical plain rim = a bit like some 'butter pots' in Border ware (Pearce 1992, fig.45.426). Rim diam 120mm (40%). 1 large rimsherd & small joining rim and bodysherd. Heavily sooted inside - black, & over rim lip. Either a chimney pot or perhaps the chimney or vent from the roof of a pot kiln? Soft fine sandy fabric like BORD Border whiteware but too much iron content making it pale orange-buff with a v pale brown or off-cream ext surface. Unglazed apart from splash of copper-green glaze ext on shoulder. Possibly flaring outwards slightly lower down. Max height of sherd 174mm. ILLUS. Or BORD??
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	PMR CALC	London-area post-medieval calcareous redware	1580	1900	PM				3	80	1	Joining body sherds from lower conical flaring wall of possible ?jug or pipkin with body horiz grooving or ribbing allover body ext but stops some distance above missing base. The upper wall is broken at the girth and 'pinched' possibly die to missing handle attachment or pulled lip (if a skillet)? Traces of brown glaze in lower wall/int base only. fine sandy fabric with light brown core and light grey surfaces. Heavily sooted from domestic use ext
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	ROMAN	Roman pottery	1AD	410AD	ROM		BOWL		1	20	1	Worn rim from Roman 'dog dish' type form with bifid or ledged rim. Burnished. Possibly Black Burnished ware? Diam 220mm
WOK17		8 c1580-1650	ROMAN	Roman pottery	1AD	410AD	ROM		JAR		1	7	1	Worn body sherd from smallish globular jar/jug in Roman sandy greyware. Light grey with lighter grey ext self slip or wash?
TOTAL											107	2863	60	