Project details

Project name	Park House, Horton Lane, Horley
Short description of the project	Between November 2009 and April 2010 Oxford Archaeology (OA) carried out an archaeological watching brief at Park House, Horton Lane, Horley, Oxfordshire (NGR: SP 417 439). The work was commissioned by Mr David Marriott in advance of the proposed conversion of an existing barn to a studio and utility room and a proposed orangery. The watching brief revealed evidence of the construction of the barn undergoing conversion, an associated cobbled yard surface, a possible terrace wall and the original topology of the yard. No evidence for any earlier phases of Park House was observed.
